Club Cross Country Championship Cup – E.W. Langlands Cup

This cup is the oldest trophy in the club and was instituted in 1890 when it was presented by Eric W Langlands Esq. At the time he was the Honorary President of Maryhill Harriers, having been one of the four individuals who founded the club in November 1888. The first winner of the cup in 1890 was the medical student Peter Marshall who was also one of the club's founding four members.

The cup is presented annually to the club cross country champion and includes names of Olympians and National Champions. Greats such as George Dallas, Dunky Wright, Donald McNab Robertson and John Emmett Farrell are all engraved into the history of the cup along with many more illustrious names throughout the history of both the club and Scottish athletics. Originally each year's winner also received a gold badge as well as having his name engraved on the trophy and holding it for one year.
